Tigers Swamp Blue Stocking Out Fit to Tune of 34 to 0

P. C. Is Held Helpless—Clemson is Penalized Heavily—Preachers Try Aerial Football—Harmon Plays Great Game

For the first time this season, the Tiger football machine gave a demonstration on the home field of its wonderful effectiveness, choosing as their first victim the P. C. grid-ders. When the dust had settled on the field, the crowd grown thin and the last sad notes of taps was sounding, P. C. lay in the shoes of a 34 to 0 defeat, Furman stock had suffered a severe slump and the dark secret as to the true nature of Doc Stewart's team lay exposed to the world. The P. C. line, tho gamely standing the gaff, was entirely unable to withstand the terrific onslaughts of the Clemson backfield. Zeigler, Wilhite, Colbert and Harmon smashed thru at will for five, eight and ten yards at a clip. P. C. tried line plunges but soon found our line invincible so changed their method of attack, using nothing much but forward passes. Clemson suffered numerous penalties, several of which came at a very critical time when the ball lacked only a few yards of being over the P. C. goal line. This is responsible in no small measure for the preachers not being beaten more than 34 points.

Altho the whole Clemson backfield played stellar ball, perhaps the outstanding star was Harmon on quarter. His spectacular diving and jumping, coupled with his speedy footwork netted him the distinction of being the best ground gainer on the field. This is Harmon's first year so many predict great things for him before he completes his sojourn at Tigertown.

Next week the Tigers journey to Alabama to give battle to our ancient and worthy rival, Auburn. For a number of years we have failed to bring home the bacon but this year—watch out Auburn!

First Quarter

The Presbyterians won the toss and elected to defend the south goal. Hollahan kicked off to P. C.'s 20 yard line and Hindman returned 10 yards. Pearce gained three around right end then two more thru right tackle. A pass, Hindman to Clowney netted ten yards and first down. Ball in the middle of the field. Clemson here took time out. Wilson got one yard over right guard. Clemson interfered with a pass and the ball was given to the visitors with a ten yard gain. Hindman two over left tackle a pass failed. With the ball on Clemson 40 yard line another buck failed and Hindman punted 20 yards to out of bounds. Clemson ball on her own twenty yard line. Zeigler 6 yards over left guard, Wilhite five over right guard. Wilhite thru center for three and Colbert going off right tackle for four more. Zeigler then drove 8 yards thru right guard for first down. Wilhite and Colbert each took five apiece over the tackles; Zeigler gains four over right guard and Harmon skirted the end for five. Wilhite and Zeigler each took six more thru the line Colbert made it three more thru the left guard. Here the ball was on P. C.'s 12 yard line and first down. Zeigler then took four over

THE FACULTY IS FORTUNATE IN HAVING ONLY A FEW CHANGES THIS YEAR

Smallest Number of Changes in Several Years—New Men Are Well Fitted For Their Duties

This year was characterized by comparatively few changes in the Faculty, although quite a number of men have been added in the Extension Department.

The fact that few changes were made in the Faculty shows that efficient men are employed in the work here.

A few men left here this year to take up work in other places. No changes were made in the Textile or Chemistry Departments. The changes made in the Engineering Department were: Prof. Hale Houston, Head of the Civil Engineering Department resigned to accept a position in the Civil Engineering Department at Washington and Lee. In his place we have T. L. Clark who graduated from the University of Illinois in June 1902. Prof. Clark worked for the Church and Kurr Co., for a number of years. Before coming to Clemson he was in the Civil Engineering Department in the University of South Dakota.

Prof. J. H. Tompson, assistant Prof. of Architecture, resigned to accept position at the head of the Architectural Department at Tulane University at New Orleans, Louisiana. To fill his place we have D. C. Lange. Prof. Lange graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in Architecture. He was formally an instructor in Architecture here. He was first with us when the Architectural course was started at Clemson.

The position of instructor in Shop work was changed to instructor in Engineering. To fill this position we have Frank M. Burr a M. and C. E. graduate from the University of Michigan in 1913. He was in Practical Engineering work before coming to Clemson.

In the Academic Department Prof. A. L. Hodges, formerly teacher in Staunton Military Academy, instructor in the University of Pennsylvania and for eight years head of the physics division at the Citadel, is assistant Professor of Physics, taking the place of R. E. Preston.

Prof. Hodges is a graduate of the Citadel and a native of Marlboro county. Prof. Hodges resigned from the Citadel to go into the war and remained in the service for several years working on explosives.

Prof. O. E. Hedge a native of Indiana and a graduate of the Danville Normal School, is instructor in English, taking the place of A. L. Rider. Mr. Hedge has had several years experience in teaching and was in the service for more than a year. W. L. Refo, a native of Chester and a graduate of Carolina takes the place of R. C. Thompson as instructor in English.

L. A. Sease assistant professor of English is temporarily teaching Federal Board Men.

E. F. Gettys is teaching Federal Board men mathematics in place of R. A. Hughes.

Some new men have been added to the Military Department these are: Captain Lee a graduate of the University of Georgia. He spent several years in the service in Siberia.

Legislators Visit Clemson

Annual Meeting of State Legislators—Make a Thorough Inspection of The College—One of Their Number Addresses the Students in Chapel.

On October 4th, the members of the Legislature which had been selected for the purpose of giving the Agricultural College of the State the "once over" arrived at Clemson College. This is done each year in order that the Legislature may be informed as to what Clemson is doing and just what Clemson needs in the way of finances, equipment, etc. These Legislators do not see Clemson College in its "Sunday attire," but just as it is every day. There is nothing extra put on for their benefit.—this would destroy the object of the meeting.

After going the rounds of the College, inspecting the different departments in order that they may be acquainted with just what Clemson is doing (and by no means slighting the mess hall at meal time) the representatives, thru one of their members, made an address to the corps of cadets in chapel. It was evident from the speech that this body of men was well satisfied with Clemson in every way except that there is a special need for another barracks, and probably two. Now, the corps of cadets concurs in this opinion, and they hope that as a result of this meeting that the Legislature will open the way for Clemson to get another barracks. Clemson College is of course now the largest college in the State, but this is not enough,—what we want is one of the largest, if not the largest, in the entire South and with the addition of equipment to take care of the students, there is absolutely no reason why this cannot be accomplished. In his address he also stressed the importance of securing a college education, and cited figures to prove the fact that every day a man spends in school means $15 in money to him. Now this is something to consider, and a man should think mighty hard before he gives up a college education, especially in such times when competition is keener than ever and when technical training is very much in demand.

The College is well pleased with the result of this meeting, as are the Legislators, and it is sure that these men will report favorably on their visit and thus convince the Legislature that Clemson College merits every cent that they can put into it.

Scriptural

"How will you have your roast beef?", asked the waiter.

"Well done thou good and faithful servant," murmured the clerical looking diner absent mindedly.—Life

Capt. Lee came here from Camp Benning.

Capt. Braden is a graduate of Washington and Jefferson and the University of Pittsburgh. Capt. Braden served with the army overseas.

Lt. Emory is a graduate from University of Illinois and West Point. These men are to assist in Military Instruction.

The names of the new men of the Extension Division will be given next week.

Clemson Plays Auburn Friday

Tigers Meet Tigers at Auburn—Promise of Good Game With Donahue's Eleven.

The Clemson Tigers will clash with the Auburn Tigers on Friday. This game promises to be a hard fought one from start to finish. This year the two tiger elevens will be more evenly matched than they were last year. In 1920 Auburn had a very heavy team and outweighed the Clemson team by a good many pounds. This year however, Clemson will not be outweighed as much, but still Auburn will have the weight on them. The Auburn line is said to be as heavy and as strong as it was last year. On the other hand, Clemson has a heavier and a much stronger team than last year. This will help even up matters some.

Auburn hasn't played any hard games so far this season, so it is hard to tell exactly what she has. She has played and defeated four small schools by very large margins, however. This Alabama team has always been a good one, tho, therefore it is to be expected that it is a good one this season. What kind of a crew Coach Donahue has will have to be shown when they hit Doc Stewart's fighting Tigers. These men of the Purple and Gold have shown the world what they can do. Their ability and pluck was brought to light on Oct. 1 in the game with Centre. On last Friday the old Tigers buried the P. C. Blue Stockings under a score of 34 to 0.

On to Auburn, you fighting Tigers and bring back the bacon. There will be nine hundred supporters backing you up and roaring for you here in Tigertown.

SENIOR "BULLS" MAKE ANOTHER JUDGING TRIP

Senior section five, better known as the "Bull Artists," accompanied by Professor Godbey, made a flying trip to Lebanon Friday morning to act as judges in the Lebanon Community Fair. This was the second judging trip by this section in less than a week, the other trip being to a fair at Seneca. The Senior "Bulls" have quite a reputation as judges of livestock as well as judges of the better half of the human race. They have several other trips under consideration, one of these being to Atlanta next week where they will enter the judging contest of the Southeastern Fair.

"Sam" Williams did not do so very much work while at the fair, as he, like "Joe" Moss at Seneca last week, spent the day shaking hands with his old friends of this section.

Every body knew what he was judging at this fair as the "Bulls" were restricted to the livestock department; accordingly, no one had a chance to put a squash over a gourd as the best pumpkin in the fair.

Dr. A.K. Foster Visits Clemson

Cadets and People of the Campus Enjoy Lectures Given by Dr. Allyn F. Foster.

Clemson was indeed fortunate in having a man like Dr. Allyn F. Foster as a visitor. Dr. Foster has the reputation of being one of the best lecturers in the country, and a man who is appreciated wherever he goes. Indeed, Clemson stands out as one of the four great institutions of the South visited by Dr. Foster. The series of lectures were enjoyed by a large number of students and others, all uniting to say that the talks were a big success.

Dr. Foster made his first address to the students in chapel on Tuesday morning, October the fourth. He had planned to arrive sooner, and preparations had been made for his reception but he was unable to come as soon as arranged for. In his first speech Dr. Foster made everyone feel that there was much that he had to tell, and that he brought a message for each one at Clemson.

The president and faculty realized the importance of Dr. Foster's lectures, and it was so arranged that the cadets could attend his lectures in the morning and evening. This arrangement was carried out with the exception of Wednesday. On that day Clemson was being inspected by visitors, and it was desirable that the visitors see chapel services as they are each morning. However, Dr. Foster spoke to many of the cadets while they were in their classrooms, and too, he spoke to an audience that evening.

On Thursday morning Dr. Foster made his last address in the chapel, a lecture that was very much appreciated. In addition to his regular lectures Dr. Foster talked to many of the sections in their classrooms. In these short talks he showed the cadets how he believed that religion could be applied to everyday life in the barracks.

Dr. Allyn K. Foster's lectures were delivered in such a manner that the questions of Christ and of His teachings were placed clearly before each one present. He also brought out the point that Christ and science do not necessarily conflict with each other. In short Dr. Foster's lectures were very good, being enjoyed by everyone hearing them. The cadets and others are grateful to the Y. M. C. A. for bringing such a capable man to speak at Clemson.

REV. DAVIS DECLINES INVITATION FROM ABBEVILLE

The local Presbyterians, the Students, the College Authorities and the people of the community generally are very glad to hear that the Rev. W. E. Davis pastor of the Fort Hill Presbyterian church here, has declined the call to the Presbyterian church in Abbeville and will remain at Clemson. The call to Abbeville was made several weeks ago and has been under consideration by Mr. Davis since then. He has a strong hold upon the people here and his going would have been felt as a distinct loss. Mr. Davis has been at Clemson for the past several years and is loved by all of the Presbyterians of this place and the students. We hope that the Abbeville church will not find it hard to obtain a good preacher, but are glad that Mr. Davis has decided to stay with us.

EDITORIAL.

In writing the article last week on the death of little Miss Miller, a mistake was made in saying that she was a sister of J. Stewart Miller. This statement should have read, a sister of J. Howard Miller instead of a sister of J. Stewart Miller.

Are you out for cross-country? If not, why not? With two teams to be formed, there are several places open for good men. In fact no one is sure of a place. The teams will not be selected until a few days before the meets; and up to that time all men will be considered the same. Because all of last year's team is back is no reason for anyone hesitating to go out. The team this year may be selected from an entirely new set of men. Remember what Coach Stewart said last spring concerning a freshman trying out for one of his teams. Remember that he said that he would give a letter to any man that went out for a team in his freshman year and trained consistently until he finished school provided that man did not make a letter according to regulations. A large crowd of men took him at his word and tried out for track and as a result, twenty-two of them made letters and Clemson had one of the most successful track years within her existence. Clemson is out for a clean sweep in all branches of athletics, and cross-country teams are worth trying for; but even if one should fail to make one of these teams he will be getting stamina and lung capacity that will be of much value to him in spring track practice. Now let's have everybody out and see if the Tigers can not do as well in cross-country as they did in track and are doing in football.

"THE SECRET IS OUT," says the Greenville News in its story covering the P. C.—Clemson football game. We were beginning to think that it was about time for the papers of South Carolina to look over towards Tiger Town. If we do not miss our guess too far there is going to be some even more startling news originating in these parts before the end of the football season.

Perhaps Centre's 14 to 0 victory over Clemson does not appear as hollow since Saturday as some of the Southern papers would have its readers believe. After all Centre could only defeat the strong V. P. I. team by the same score that she did us; while Clemson gave P. C. the worst licking that the Blue Stockings have suffered in years. The Tigers went after revenge for last year and year before last; and to say the least, they surely got it.

We are glad to announce that Cadet G. D. Grice has returned to college and that he will resume his duties on The Tiger staff. On account of the great revival in athletic at Clemson, it was thought best to have two members of the Junior Class as associate athletic reporter; and we feel sure that Grice and Smyth can handle their jobs to the greatest of perfection.

The spirit shown at the P. C. game was splendid, but even at that it could be improved. What we need is some new yells that are real Clemson yells in every sence of the word. Without doubt there are several men in the student body of original and creative minds. Lets hear from these men in the composing of some new yells that are strictly suited for the Tigers alone.

Judging from the crowd seen at the P. C. game last Friday, "Doc" Stewart's Elephantine Tigers are prving a sensation throughout this part of South Carolina. This was the first opportunity that many of the Tiger supporters had had in seeing the new Tiger machine. Every one seemed to be well pleased with the Tiger showing and all predicted much success for Clemson on the football field. Quite a number of Furmanites were seen n the sidelines; but, 0 said to relate, the value of Furman stock hit the bottom as soon as the Tigers hit P. C.

LET US HAVE IT

The Tiger staff is at the present time trying to work out plan whereby it will be posible to have a regular photagropher to cover all athletic contests and other items of interest. The idea is to publish cuts very frequently and have a little pictorial representation in the columns of "The Tiger." However it goes without saying, that the prerequisite of a cut is a picture. This is an appeal t the corps to turn in any picture worth while to "The Tiger". The pictures must necessarily be large and clear, but it will do no harm to turn them in even if they are not used. Any picture as large as 2 1-4 inches will be acceptable. All pictures will be returned if the owner desires. Thanks.

STUDENTS HEAR DR. FOSTER

Last week the student body had the privilege of hearing Dr. Allyn K. Foster, a speaker and Christian worker of nation-wide fame. Dr. Foster has been a Baptist minister for over twenty years. During the recent World War he served in France with the Y. M. C. A. for two years, and has since been giving his time to the work of Christian evangelism. He is doing a great work in traveling over the country and giving lectures and talks on Christianity. Dr. Foster is not an emotional evangelist, but deals with the subject of religion from a purely intellectual side. He brought many practical thoughts before the students.

The general theme of all Dr. Foster's talks was the close agreement of Christianity with the sciences. His explanations of many of the unhappy doubts about religion that a scientific education often teaches were very illuminating and helpful. He treated with some detail the question of evolution with its seeming contradiction to the Bible and explained that the Holy Book was for the purpose of revealing God's will and commandments and not, as many people tried to make it, a book on natural science.

Dr. Foster is a good orator, an entertaining speaker, and shows himself to be a well-educated broad minded man. The results of his work are not at once evident, but he leaves a lasting impression upon the minds of those who hear him, an impression that will last and bear much fruit in time to come.

Y. M. C. A.

How many students are really interested in the Y. M. C. A.? Interested in it to such an extent that it is not thought of as merely a shelter to keep the rain and sunshine off while you shoot pool or see a picture show, but as a good place to be regardless of the weather or the shows and pool shooting. You have an interest in it. It has an interest in you, and will be glad to do all it can to make student life pleasant. It cannot do this by itself. It needs the co-operation of every student.

When magazines are put out at the desk, they are expected to be returned, or to be left in the reading room. It is impossible for the "Y" to furnish a magazine for every student. The "Y" wants to treat every student alike, but if you carry the magazine to your rooms you deprive the other fellow of the privilege that you had—seeing the magazine. If you start a good story and do not get to finish it, carry the magazine back to the desk it will be there when you want it again. If you do want to carry it to your room, ask "Holtzy" or Fox about it. If YOU do not walk off with the magazine no one else will. Unless every student co-operates with the "Y" in this matter, it will be impossible for the secretary to furnish magazines for the few who would pull in the right direction. It's up to you. What are YOU going to do about it?

The secretary also purpose to show a free picture at least twice a month. These free pictures will be the regular five and six reel pictures. (Special tickets will be provided and announcement will be made of every show. Only students will be admitted free. All others will be required to pay the regular admission fee.

The "Y" is willing to do more and will do more if you will co-operate with it. If you see anything that needs to be done, see "Holtzy" or Fox about it. Make the "Y" your "Y"

EXTENSION WORKERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Extension Workers was held at Clemson College from October 4th to 8th inclusive. The principal subjects which came up for discussion during the meeting were the importance of Co-operative Marketing of farm crops, and Ways and Means of Combating the Boll Weevil. These two subjects are of vital importance to the South Carolina farmers and it is to aid them in handling their crops in such a manner as to enable them to reap the largest gain, that they were given the most attention during the meeting. Mr. Lloyd L. Tenney, Assistant Chief of the U. S. Bureau of Markets in his address to the Workers, stated that what the farmers need is a drill in co-operative marketing, and that so long as the farmer is content with simply marketing his crop in the old fashioned way, then so long will he remain an average farmer. Mr. Tenney also stated that truck growing in South Carolina will never become successful and permanent farming industry until the growers organize, standardize, merchandise and advertise the truck crops produced. Mr. T. B. Young also spoke on the work of the South Carolina Sweet Potato Association in selling potatoes co-operatively.

Another subject which received considerable attention was the substitution of the peanut crop for the cotton crop under existing boll weevil conditions. The boll weevil consumes from one-half to three quarters of the cotton crop in South Carolina each year. The question then resolves itself to one of two things: either over-coming the boll weevil (which seems at present very difficult to do) or introducing a substitute crop which will take the place of cotton. Of course this must be a cash crop and one with which the farmers are fairly familiar.

Other important subjects discussed were: the need for better soil building; purebred seed; better farm management; the need of more livestock, and the value of home grown food and feed.

The workers are well pleased with the results of the meeting, and they are sure that as a result of their getting together and discussing these problems which confront the farmer that he will be greatly benefitted thereby.

VARSITY IS NOT TO BE THE WHOLE SHOW

Tiger Reserves Have Several Important Games Scheduled—Georgia Reserves Play First Game Here Saturday.

The varsity will not be the whole show at Tigertown this year, although they will, of course, attract most attention, for a schedule of four games, all of which promise to be hard fought encounters, has been arranged for the Tiger scrubs. This will give the second-string men a chance to share in the glory as well as the work. The usual lot of the scrub team is to be the varsity's goat in scrimmages and so help materially in the development of the team but get little of the glory. However, to give the Tiger reserves a chance to show what they can do games have been arranged between the Tiger scrubs and the varsity teams of two small institutions, Piedmont College and the North Georgia Agricultural College, and the scrub teams of Georgia, and Georgia Tech. The scrub schedule follows:

Oct. 15, Georgia scrubs, at Clemson.

Oct. 22, Georgia Tech scrubs, at Clemson.

Oct. 29 North Georgia Aggies, at Dahlonega, Ga.

Nov. 12, Piedmont College, at Demorest, Ga.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

On account of the football game on last Friday, the Literary Societies did not hold their regular meeting after supper. However, the same programs will be carried out on next Friday night, and every man will have more time in which to prepare himself to give his Society his best.

The Societies are showing up better than ever before. More freshmen have joined up to this time than have in a long time. This should prove an omen in favor of better work and attendance this year than ever before.

These new men who are coming into the Societies are joining with the expectations of getting something out of their affiliation. They will soon become discouraged and drop out if they are not made to realize that they are being benefited. If the older members of the Societies do not attend regularly, and do not bring to the meeting their best when they are on the programs, the new members will soon catch the same spirit of laxness and inattention, and it will be only a matter of time before the value of the good work which has been done will be lost.

Let every man get the true spirit of the work, and do all within his power to uphold and carry on the principles for which the Societies were instituted. Let every man work with every other man to increase the attendance and to improve the programs. The man who shirks his duty, once it is begun, is a quitter in the full sense of the word.

Stand for your Society: give it all you have got and be a bigger and better man for having put your talents to a good use.

CLEMSON ALUMNI MAKE A LARGE PART OF AGRICULTURAL TEACHING FORCE OF THE STATE

Professor Peterson Announces the Appointments for This Year—Half of the Appointees are Clemson Graduates.

Professor Verd Peterson, state supervisor of agricultural instruction for South Carolina, completed and announced the appointment of agricultural teachers working under the Smith-Hughes act for the scholastic session of 1921-1922 a few days ago. There is a total of seventy-five white teachers, of whom forty are Clemson graduates working under this act. Nearly all of these men are graduates of the past few years; and it speaks well for the college to see such a large number of her young men entering the ranks of the teaching forces of South Carolina.

Below are given the names of the Clemson graduates and the schools to which they are assigned.

ALUMNI GOVERNING BOARD HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

"Dag" Folger Re-elected Secretary Other Business Transacted

The Governing Board of the Alumni Association met in the Alumni Office at two o'clock Saturday October the eighth. All members were present. There were many matters to be discussed and acted upon by the Board and the meeting was full of interest.

D. F. Folger, better known as "Dag," was re-elected as Secretary for the coming year. The Board heartily commended Folger for the good work done in the past year and for the manner in which he had carried on the affairs of the Association. They assured him of their sincere approval of the work done and pledged their support for the future.

An important change in policy was made concerning dues. The dues have been ten dollars a year and the ALUMNUS and the Alumni Directory were included in the privileges of membership. The Board decided to divorce the ALUMNUS and the Directory form the membership. Their recommendation is that the dues be five dollars a year and that the ALUMNUS and the Directory be sold separately. The subscription price of the ALUMNUS was fixed at two dollars previously. This recommendation will be put to a vote at the next meeting of the Association. In the mean time, Clemson men who join the Association and pay the five dollars will be considered in good standing. If for any reason, the Association should not care to reduce the dues then an additional five dollars will be collected.

A membership campaign will be started at once and the co-operation of the local chapters will be sought in this campaign. Every Clemson man is eligible for membership, whether he graduated or just matriculated at Clemson. Of course it is required of members that they be thoroughly loyal to the Association and the best interest of the College.

A report of the special committee on Endowment Insurance and Loan Fund was read to the Board. This report concerned Endowment Insurance only. The recommendation of the committee is that alumni be asked to take out endowment insurance policies with the Alumni Memorial Fund as the beneficiary. The Governing Board deferred action on the recommendation until the next meeting.

The Governing Board of the Association is composed of five members and two ex-officio members. The members are:

H. S. Johnson, Aiken, S. C.
T. B. Young, Florence, S. C.
T. W. Thornhill, Charleston S. C.
R. W. Simpson, Columbia, S. C.
G. W. Speer, Anderson, S. C.

The ex-officio members are T. W. Cothran, President and D. F. Folger, Secretary of the Association.

VESPER SERVICES ARE PROVING POPULAR WITH THE STUDENTS

Vesper services at the Y. M. C. A. are proving to be quite a success. About 150 students and a few hill people attended these services last Sunday evening. This is an increase of almost 100 per cent over the attendance of the first meeting. This is certainly encouraging to the speakers who have so willingly agreed to make these short talks every Sunday evening. Sometimes they make as many as three or four talks a day, then come and conduct vesper services at the "Y". Show them that you appreciate it by your being there.

Rev. W. E. Davis conducted the services last Sunday evening. His talk was centered around the well known Bible verse, "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." Rev. Davis spoke very forcefully for a short time and brought out some very helpful points. Reaping what one sows is one of nature's own laws. A man can't expect to be a lawyer and study agriculture. Neither can a man expect to be an athlete and remain in his room. It is impossible to sow one thing and reap another.

If one is not willing to pay the price for that which he desires it is useless for him to expect it. You may admire the physique of some athlete but unless you pay the price you can never expect to be like the athlete you admired.

Come out and give these meetings a trial. You will never know whether you will like them or not until you give them a trial. Rev. Goode will conduct these services next Sunday evening. He always has something interesting to say. Come out and fill the auditorium.

CROSS COUNTRY PRACTICE NOW UNDER WAY

Coach Stewart Orders All Track Men Out—About Seventy-five Answered Call—Two Cross-Country Meets Arranged

Last Tuesday, Coach Stewart ordered all men who expect to try for cross-country or track to report to his office. About seventy-five answered his call. Stewart pointed out the Tiger track prospects for next spring in addition to the cross-country work of this fall. He stated that he had arranged two cross-country meets for Thanksgiving: one of them to be held in Athens, Georgia, this to be a dual meet with the University of Georgia; the other to be The Intercollegiate State Meet to be held at Newberry. As each team will consist of four men and two alternates, there will be places on the two teams for twelve men.

The prospects for two good teams is very promising at the present time. All six of the members of last year's championship team returned to college. With these as a nucleus, no doubt two good teams can be secured. All track men that entered track events during the past spring have been ordered to try for the cross-country team. Several of these men show prospects of developing into real five-milers.

Among those who are expected to deliver the goods are: Young, Ellison, Summers, Kinard, Taylor, and Vincent all of last year's team, Redfern, Williams, Fripp, Cannon, Smith and Salley of the varsity track team, and Bee, Thurmon, Killian, E. W. Williams, Freeland, LaBoon and several others. No places have been tied up yet as the teams will not be selected until a few days before Thanksgiving; accordingly, every one has a chance of making one of the teams.

All track men who take part in the field events have also been ordered out for fall practice as Coach Stewart intends to have an even more successful track season next year than he did during the past year. Several large meets have already been arranged. These meets include trips from Philadelphia to Atlanta and New Orleans; thus the track team is surely worth working for. The regimental track meet will be held before Christmas this year in order to secure all prospective track material for the beginning of practice next spring.

Coach Stewart believes in continuous training in all branches of athletics, and he requests that all men out for any of his teams keep training the year round instead just for the short season that competition is actually under way in a particular branch of athletics. This is the policy adopted by all of the most successful coaches throughout the country. Therefore coach is ordering out all track men so that they can develop the stamina and endurance necessary to win in the Penn Relays and the S. I. A. A. at New Orleans.
